- the 23rd IAU 2022 European Championship 24 hours on the road

The course was also certified internationally on December 28, 2021 by the WA and AIMS international measurer Fidal Judge Stefano Bassan. In the special section of the Ultramarathon (www.lupatotissima.it/Ultramaratona.html) you will find the accurate report and certificates.

Before the beginning of April we will send the draft of the so-called GIS (General Information Sheet) of the IAU 2022 24-hour European road Championship to the IAU and FIDAL and consequently the drafts of the two Forms necessary for the Federations: the PEF (Preliminary Entry Form) and the FEF (Final Entry Form).

The assignment received by the IAU to host the 2022 European 24-hour road Championship and the related organizational needs in terms of space and logistics actually prevent us from carrying out the 24-12-6 x 1 hour relay race and the Ultramarathons as well 6 hours and 12 hours, all of which will return in 2023.
